The Saint Challenge is launching on All Saint's Day, November 1st. It is a year-long series of challenges based on the saint of the day. In 90 seconds you'll learn a little fact about the saint of the day, and be given a challenge inspired by that saint. It could be a corporal or spiritual work of mercy, or something to improve your interior life and your relationship with God and neighbor. The Saint Challenge is free, and you can find more information and find ways to sign up at www.thesaintchallenge.com. Let's be saints!

A Stewardship Moment 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of October 29-30, 2022

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection. So does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being. God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow in their faith. Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.

Eucharistic Adoration
Friday, Nov. 4 at St. Margaret Mary

"There is no other food for the soul than the Eucharist".
-Blessed Jean Baptiste Fouque (1851-1926)

Venerable Norbert McAuliffe on the Blessed Sacrament:

When Brother Norbert was asked by someone on what a person should do during a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, he replied, "Just sit there and let God's love come to you from the tabernacle."

~Venerable Norbert McAuliffe on the Blessed Sacrament

- A big thanks also goes out to all those who made the C.C.W.'s bake sale at the Essex breakfast a success.

All Parishes:

- There will be a second collection on Nov. 5-6 for the victims of Hurricane Ian. If you are writing a check, please make it out to your parish, and we will send one check to the Diocese of Venice, Florida. Also, gift cards to a major chain store would be appreciated.
- Mark your calendars for our Tri Parish Mission which will be held on Sunday, November 13—Tuesday, November 15. Fr. Daniel Bowen will present on the Four Last Things.

Question of the week: If I were in Zacchaeus's shoes and Jesus was coming to my home while others called me a sinner, what wrongs would I pledge to make right? What bold promises would I make?

Gospel Shorts The Right Place at the Right Time

Our experience with paying taxes helps us to understand why, in a much different political situation, Zacchaeus was resented by the people of Jericho. The tax collector must have thought that he could get some help from Jesus. But he got more than help: His life was renewed. In the same way, we are encouraged to be in a place where the transforming power of Christ will encounter us.

This week I am going to focus on two saints whose feast day is Nov. 1st.

Saint Benignus of Dijon (Nov. 1) was a missionary to the areas of Marseilles, Autun, and Dijon in France, sent by Saint Polycarp of Smyrna. He was martyred in the persecutions of Marcus Aurelius. The people of Tours, France revered the grave of Benignus, but the local bishop wished to put a stop to the cult, believing the tomb to be that of a heathen who had been mistakenly identified as Benignus. He started demolition, received a vision explaining his error, and instead built a basilica over the restored sarcophagus.

Saint Caesarius of Africa (Nov. 1) was the deacon of an African church. During a visit to Italy, he witnessed a pagan celebration of Apollo; Caesarius objected to the human sacrifice it involved. For his interference, he was imprisoned for two years, and then for his faith he was martyred with Saint Julian.

Questions Catholics Ask

Why do priests wear vestments?

I admit, being let loose in a sacristy the first time can be like wandering through a costume department in Hollywood. Vestments can be ornate, fabulous, regal—not to mention incredibly heavy, depending on the period they were designed. But what's most important to recognize is that when first adopted they were a costlier form of the same basic garb worn by the general population.

Ancient Hebrews wore a tunic, gathered with a sash, and a turban. Wool was the primary fabric, but priestly garments were mostly woven of linen and decorated with gold thread and yarns of violet, purple, and scarlet. In addition, high priests wore an overlying robe, squarish, with a hole in the middle to drape over the head, trimmed at the hem in bells and yarn pomegranates. On his head he wore a miter (pointed hat).

When the first Jewish Christians gathered for worship, they assembled in homes and wore no distinguishing clothing. But after the legalization of Christianity in the late 3rd century, formal public worship raised the visibility of the presider and so, too, his vesture. Still, the clothing worn by the presider resembled secular apparel.

First came the alb, a white tunic worn as an undergarment in all social classes. A ropelike cincture held the alb in place around the hips. Next was the chasuble, a more colorful poncho-like covering. Over that was the scarf known as the stole, which may have been a symbol of authoritative office. Then came the dalmatic, a more formal alb worn in the imperial court and reserved for the use of bishops and the deacons who served with them. To the bishop was also reserved the wearing of the miter. After the 7th century secular fashions advanced, strangely enough, as a result of barbarian invasions which brought down the Empire in the West. But church vesture remained the same, now oddly out of step with what everyone else was wearing. The Second Vatican Council in the 1960's inaugurated a return to simplicity in vestments, recommending that their beauty derive from "material and design" rather than "lavish ornamentation" (say good-bye to bells and pomegranates!). The continued use of vestments links our celebrations with those of previous generations and enhances the dignity of our assembly—as dressing in "our Sunday best" always has.

PARISH MISSION PRAYER

God our Father,
we offer you praise and thanksgiving
for all the many gifts you have given us through Jesus, Your Son.
We thank you especially for the gift of our parish Mission.
Loving and gracious God, quiet our minds and hearts,
that we may be open to the gift of your truth.
Grant that our parish mission may be:
a time of grace for all,
a time of growth for the young ,
a time of refreshment for the old,
a time of renewal for families,
a time of healing for the broken,
a time of joy for the sorrowing,
a time of challenge for the complacent,
a time of forgiveness for the sinner,
a time of strength for the holy,
a time of homecoming for those who have been away.
Grant, most Loving God,
that our Mission may bring down your richest blessings
on each and every member of our parish community.
We pray through the intercession of Mary, Our Mother of Mercy, in the Name of Jesus Christ
who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
Amen

The Sunday Gospel in Everyday English

Then Jesus entered and walked through Jericho. There was a man there, his name Zacchaeus, the head tax man and quite rich. He wanted desperately to see Jesus, but the crowd was in his way—he was a short man and couldn't see over the crowd. So he ran on ahead and climbed up in a sycamore tree so he could see Jesus when he came by.

When Jesus got to the tree, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry down. Today is my day to be a guest in your home."

Zacchaeus scrambled out of the tree, hardly believing his good luck, delighted to take Jesus home with him. Everyone who saw the incident was indignant and grumped, "What business does he have getting cozy with this crook?"

Zacchaeus just stood there, a little stunned. He stammered apologetically, "Master, I give away half my income to the poor—and if I'm caught cheating, I pay four times the damages."

Jesus said, "Today is salvation day in this home! Here he is: Zacchaeus, son of Abraham! For the Son of Man came to find and restore the lost" (from Luke 19).

Our Parish Mission Nov. 13-15

Fr. Daniel Bowen, O. de M., will be visiting the Tri-Parish Catholic Communities from Nov. 13 through Nov. 15.

Fr. Daniel was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio in 1970. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications in 1992, from Ohio University.

In 2008, he professed his first vows as a Mercedarian friar. He earned his Master's degree in Theology and Master's in Divinity at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 2013. Making his Solemn vows in 2014, he was ordained to the priesthood in 2015.

Fr. Daniel's first assignment after ordination was in Saint Petersburg, Florida where he served for three years as a Parochial Vicar at Sacred Heart Parish. Returning to Cleveland, Ohio in 2018, he has served as Vocation Director for the U.S. Mercedarian Vicariate, and most recently in 2022, also assigned as Master of Students at the Mercedarian House of Studies in Columbus, Ohio. In addition, he has served both in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, and in the Diocese of Buffalo.

For more of Father Daniel's life story, please watch the video of his appearance on EWTN's the Journey Home: <https://youtu.be/ePwFDq0r-78>

Fr. Daniel will speak at each of the Masses on the weekend during his visit. The Four Last Things is the title of his Mission. Starting Sunday evening, each presentation will begin at 7 pm. He will be available for confessions before and after each talk or by appointment by calling the rectory (815) 426-2153. There will be a free will offering taken each evening.

The recitation of the most holy Rosary will be led each evening beginning at 6:30 p.m. The Church offers a Plenary Indulgence to the faithful who attend each evening of a parish mission; there will be a special Apostolic Blessing on Tuesday evening at the conclusion of the talk to impart this Indulgence.

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 11:22—12:2 | 2 Thes 1:11—2:2 | Lk 19:1-10

Written by

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

When will wisdom kick in? Even so many years later, I still struggle with some of the same questions that kept me up at night when I was 21. Fortunately, God is patient with late bloomers. The Book of Wisdom reassures us that, first, God loves us, no matter where we are on the continuum of “having it all together.” Second, the Lord won’t judge us on our worst days, but wants us to grow in wisdom and holiness. The Wisdom writer knows it’s not an overnight process; it is often marked by one step forward, two steps back: “You rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O Lord!” Like Zacchaeus in today’s Gospel, if we seek out Jesus and ask for his help, he will show us the way. Thanks be to a God who comes “to seek and to save what was lost.”

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

At Mass recently, the priest encouraged parishioners to turn to the person next to them and ask them for whom they would like us to pray. I’ve been at Masses where we introduce ourselves, but this “Hi, how are you, please pray for X” was new to me. As Mass continued, I prayed for Matt, the son of the woman in front of me. She prayed for my friend Jim, whose sore knee had sidelined him during his walk along the Camino de Santiago. How encouraging it must have been for the early Christians to know that St. Paul held them in prayer, “that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.” Just as Jesus seeks us out, we, in turn, can accompany others who may be lost or hurting or who just happen to be in the next pew. Through our prayers, we can build up one another, our parish, and the wider Church.

PRAY When a friend shares a struggle or challenge, don’t be shy about offering your prayers. Make a list of people to pray for and set it by your bedside so you don’t forget.

Sunday, Oct 30, 2022

Small is beautiful

"I am only one person," we hear people say. "I'm nobody special. I don't have any power over what happens." We can all summon up plenty of reasons why our contribution to creating a more just global society is withheld. Mother Teresa of Calcutta had a different perspective. "There are no great things, only small things with great love," she said. "Happy are those." A little man named Zacchaeus once climbed a tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus. Take the small step of lifting your vision just a little higher today and you may encounter love.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 11:22—12:2; 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2; Luke 19:1-10 (153). "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house."

Monday, Oct 31, 2022

Hallowed be the Eve

Given its association with witches, goblins, and the like, it might seem strange that Halloween is actually a Catholic holiday. Halloween, or Hallowe'en, is an abbreviation for "All Hallow's Eve," a celebration the night before All Saints' and All Souls' Days (November 1 and 2). Just like on the night before Christmas or before Ash Wednesday, people make merry on October 31—through costumes and parties for kids and adults alike—before the more solemn days to come. Take a cue this week from Mexican culture's festive Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) to pay respects with a joyful heart to those who have gone before us.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 2:1-4; Luke 14:12-14 (485). "When you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."

Tuesday, Nov 01, 2022

It's the company you keep

"It is the example of the righteous that we must make our own," instructed Pope Clement of Rome. "Seek the company of the saints, for those who seek their company shall be sanctified." Catholics believe in the communion of saints: all who have attained a place at the heavenly banquet—and from whom we seek inspiration, example, and intercession. They include Saint Francis as well as someone's Uncle Frank, Saint Gertrude the Great along with a great many grandmas. Images of both famous and ordinary saints informed the work of artist John Nava for the stunning Communion of Saints tapestries at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles; let them grace your prayer today.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven."

Wednesday, Nov 02, 2022

Dressing for the dearly departed

All Souls' Day is celebrated in many different ways, depending on one's culture. Some celebrate the season by dressing up. Others honor Día de los Muertos by having feasts at cemeteries, where stories are told and gifts are offered to the ancestors. Some spend the day with doors and windows wide open as a symbol of welcoming the dearly departed. In all different ways, life is celebrated, the life we shared with loved ones who have died, and the life we continue to share with them and one another in new ways. What will be your All Souls' Day custom today?

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "The souls of the just are in the hand of God."

Thursday, Nov 03, 2022

The struggle for racial justice continues

In 1947, the Catholic Interracial Council of Los Angeles sued the state of California to challenge the law that prohibited interracial marriages. At the time laws in 30 states made interracial marriages illegal. The challenge cited Catholic teaching to argue that racism is inherently evil and irrational. The lawsuit succeeded, a step along the long road to racial justice. Peruvian Saint Martin de Porres, born out of wedlock in 1579 to a Spanish nobleman and a formerly enslaved African woman, is patron of mixed-race people and all those seeking racial harmony. Ask Saint Martin to help us keep up the fight for racial justice.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, DOMINICAN BROTHER

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 3:3-8a; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "He, the LORD, is our God; throughout the earth his judgments prevail."

Friday, Nov 04, 2022

An inspiration in trying times

Many lessons can be drawn from our experience these difficult years of the epidemic. Foremost among them is that we have to be there for each other. During the 1576-78 Plague of Milan, when many city officials fled the scene, Archbishop Borromeo stayed the course, not only organizing a wide-ranging clerical response to the temporal and spiritual needs of the people, but even selling his own possessions and borrowing funds to care for the many hungry, homeless, and dying souls. Dismissing concerns over infection, he made visitations across the diocese and personally ministered to the sick. What can we do today to honor his memory and serve those in need?

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEIO, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 3:17—4:1; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "Prepare a full account of your stewardship."

Saturday, Nov 05, 2022

Loosen that grip

Imagine going through an entire day having left your wallet or purse at home, carrying no money of any kind (cash, credit card, or otherwise). Now imagine going through your entire life that way! More than likely, that's how Jesus lived. He had a lot to say about money, especially our relationship to it, but we never read of Jesus carrying any himself. When he's challenged about paying taxes, he asks to be shown a coin in order to respond, so he likely wasn't carrying any of his own. While Jesus did not command us to live without money, he cautioned us to use it ethically and to be careful how tightly we hold it in our hands—and our hearts.

TODAY'S READINGS: Philippians 4:10-19; Luke 16:9-15 (490). "If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth?"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
